

	0	1 Point	2 Points	3 Points	4 Points
Does the project provide a learning experience that students wouldn't receive?	Missing	This project does not provide a new experience. This project's objectives are already met in the community or schools	Adding this project will enhance an existing program or activity. This project's objectives are partially met by the community or schools.	This project provides experiences and opportunities that students cannot currently access at schools. This project's objectives are not currently being met in the schools.
Is the project high impact, involving many students, or one that can be duplicated across the district?	Missing	This project involves only a few students This project involves a small number of teachers This project would be difficult to duplicate or expand	This project involves some students (perhaps just one class) This project involves only a select number of teachers, grades, and/or buildings This project could be duplicated by many teachers, grades, and/or buildings with some challenges	This project involves many students This project involves many teachers, grades, and/or buildings (or has the potential to) This project could be duplicated by many teachers, grades, and/or buildings with relative ease.
Does the applicant explain how the project enhances current curriculum?	Missing	Explanation is lacking Connections are weak between current curriculum and project Reader has difficulty seeing how the curriculum would be enhanced	Explanation is missing elements Connections could be made between current curriculum and project, but they are not strong Reader can see how the curriculum might be enhanced	Explanation is thorough Connections are made between current curriculum and project Reader can see how curriculum will be enhanced	Explanation is thorough and compelling Clear connections are made between the current curriculum and the project Reader can easily see how curriculum will be enhanced
Does the applicant explain how the project meets district objectives?	Missing	Explanation is lacking Connections are weak between district objectives and project Reader has difficulty seeing how the project advances district goals	Explanation is missing elements Connections could be made between district objectives and project, but they are not strong Reader can see how work toward district goals might be helped	Explanation is thorough Connections are made between district objectives and the project Reader can see how the project advances work toward district goals	Explanation is thorough and compelling Clear connections are made between district objectives and the project Reader can easily see how the project advances work toward district goals
How many disciplines are used in the project? Does the applicant describe how the project will impact the different disciplines?	Missing	One or only a few disciplines are used in the project Discipline(s) is (are) not clearly or accurately connected to the goals of the project	Many disciplines are used in the project Each discipline is clearly and accurately connected to the goals of the project
Does the project sound like an engaging learning experience? Would you or your children react favorably to the project?	Missing	The project might be engaging for a few students The project would not create a positive reaction from me and/or my children	The project might be engaging for some students The project might create a positive reaction from me and/or my children	The project would be engaging for many students The project would create a positive reaction from me and/or my children	The project would be highly engaging for a variety of students The project would inspire an excited reaction from me and/or my children

