Budget Updates

Matt Fisher, GIPS Superintendent

Virgil Harden, GIPS Chief Financial Officer

01

Lower Tax Levy; First Time in 22 Years

The overall levy needed to support our schools will decrease by a total of about 10 cents for each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation.

02

Increased Special Ed. Reimbursement from State will Lower Property Tax

$6 million more dollars of Special Ed. services will be moved off of the property taxpayer and will be covered by state funds.

03

Our valuable staff are the backbone of our district. We want to continue supporting them as they support our students.

04

Rebuilding Cash Reserves Remains a Focus

GIPS is continuing to make strategic investments in order to lower bond debt and take care of today's needs and plan for the future.
